Every use case includes «Sign in». The administrator role is granted in the database, never through the interface.